

Announcements, November 3, 2024

- This Thursday is our next MomCo meeting. If you are a mom with a toddler through senior in high school or know of a mom that fits this description, MomCo is for you. We meet here in the Sanctuary at 9:45 am. See Pastor Julie for more information.
- Saturday, November 9th at 8 am, is Prime Time Thanksgiving at Hodels in Bakersfield. Cost is $15. Payment and RSVP needs to be in to Mathy by TODAY. You don't want to miss this opportunity to have some amazing food, fellowship and while you are at it, do some Christmas Shopping.
- Thanksgiving is right around the corner. Each year we bless families in our community with a thanksgiving basket. Your help is needed to make this possible. $75 will provide a family in need with the supplies to make a traditional thanksgiving meal. You can donate online or in the yellow giving envelopes and write in Loving Tehachapi.
- Save the Date: Dec 7th Men's breakfast and tool exchange and Dec 13th Women's Candy Cane Christmas Celebration.
- See the bulletin for additional activities and ministries available here at TNAZ.

Invite Bob up to make announcement and he will pray for offering

Check for celebration offering if in the middle of the service and then invite ushers forward and pray.
