The LORD is close to the brokenhearted
and saves those who are crushed in spirit.

Psalms 34:18

Have you seen this in our world today or even in our congregation?

Many today are under weights, some even too difficult at times to bear.

We want you to know we have great news. The Lord is close in these times. We might think he is far from us, however, that is not what the Psalmist says. He says the Lord is close when we are broken on the inside. When even our Spirit is crushed. Have you felt this way in the past or even now?

Most believe David is running for his life when he writes this. Looking up from the bottom. His entire world has been shattered. We say to this, take heart, these are the times we need a Savior on the inside and out and He is still comforting and close today!!! Hallelujah!!

In Christ,

Pastor Daniel
