Luke 14:12-15; 23

12 Then Jesus said to his host, "When you give a luncheon or dinner, do not invite your friends, your brothers or sisters, your relatives, or your rich neighbors; if you do, they may invite you back and so you will be repaid. 13 But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, 14 and you will be blessed. Although they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous." 15 When one of those at the table with him heard this, he said to Jesus, "Blessed is the one who will eat at the feast in the kingdom of God."

All through our childhood my parents would remind us of a banquet we did not want to miss. My mother in law is with the Savior now with them ready to feast at the great banquet. A banquet truly for all time!

Jesus finishes with this fantastic verse!

23 "Then the master told his servant, 'Go out to the roads and country lanes and compel them to come in, so that my house will be full.

In Christ,

Pastor Daniel
